

“France: National energy mediator criticism over high number of customer disputes”

“In relation to the criticism from the French National Energy Mediator (MNE) in 2021, there was never any judicial litigation and EGPF was never fined. Nevertheless, actions have been taken from the management of the company since 2021. Therefore EGPF consider the referred controversy closed”.